

The Central Agency for Jewish Education is seeking nominations for the
STUART I. RASKAS OUTSTANDING
DAY SCHOOL TEACHER AWARD 2012

This award is presented every year to a Day School teacher who exemplifies excellence in teaching. The recipient receives a $1,000 grant and is the St. Louis nominee for the prestigious national Grinspoon-Steinhardt Awards for Excellence in Jewish Education.

Nominations are sought for individuals who meet the following criteria:

- Three or more years teaching in a St. Louis Jewish day school
 - Teach at least 6 hours per week in a Jewish day school
 - Intent on continuing teaching
 - Track record of excellence in teaching
 - Commitment to the St. Louis Jewish community
 - Commitment to Jewish values

Nominations may be made by parents, students, colleagues, educators, rabbis, cantors, and other members of the St. Louis Jewish community.

Deadline for Nominations: March 19, 2012

Mail Nominations to:
Teacher Award Committee, c/o CAJE
12 Millstone Campus Drive
St. Louis, MO 63146

Additional nomination forms may be obtained from your school office, the CAJE website at www.cajestl.org or

Michelle Brooks
(314) 442-3774
mbrooks@cajestl.org

