Sichot Kodesh: Conversations with the Rabbis

St. Louis is fortunate to have such an outstanding and diverse group of talented rabbis in our community. This year, in place of the annual fall "Rabbi Robert P. Jacobs Adult Institute of Jewish Studies", the community will have the opportunity to learn, talk and interact with a myriad of rabbis throughout the year. Sichot Kodesh means "holy conversations" and whether the topic be related to a Jewish holiday, Jewish ethics, or contemporary issues facing the community, you will definitely come away inspired and enriched.

Each month three rabbis will give their unique perspectives on a similar topic. All classes held at the new JCC Staenberg Family Complex, #2 Millstone Campus Dr. Pick and choose or better yet, come to all!
